JMC wins Commitment to People Development at Chamber Awards bash

JMC, an IT support firm from Salford, is celebrating after winning the Commitment to People Development award, sponsored by Westfield Health, at the British Chambers of Commerce's annual Chamber Awards 2013. The Chamber Awards, now in the 10th anniversary year, is one of the showpiece events in the business calendar, highlighting the role of business as a positive force for the UK recovery, and for local communities.

JMC, a member of the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce, was praised by the judging panel for focusing on bespoke coaching and mentoring schemes and providing career development opportunities for all staff. This includes recruiting talented graduates and apprentices who want to train for key roles across the company, with an average 12-year service amongst its staff.

Nora Senior, President of the British Chambers of Commerce (BCC) said:

"I visit many businesses up and down the country and I am constantly impressed by their determination, innovation and the contributions they are making to their local communities. With focus and passion, JMC has developed a fine offering in the marketplace, and is showing the world why Business is Good for Britain."

Jill Davies, Chief Executive of Westfield Health said:

"Congratulations to JMC on winning the Commitment to People Development award, they truly are a worthy winner. They have embraced the importance of being a good employer, in nurturing and developing their staff and the results really speak for themselves, well done."
