

WALTON-ON-THAMES MUMPRENEUR IN RUNNING FOR TOP BUSINESS AWARD

A successful Walton-on-Thames mumpreneur will line up alongside some of the country's most successful companies as she competes for a leading national award.

Entrepreneur Cara Sayer, who set up buggy and car seat black-out blind company SnoozeShade in 2009, has picked up the regional award for Entrepreneur of the Year in the South East, sponsored by BT Directories.

Cara is now a finalist in her category for the UK title in the Chamber Awards hosted by the British Chambers of Commerce, which were created to celebrate the UK's most successful businesses.

John Longworth, Director General of the British Chambers of Commerce, said: "The health of the UK's economy relies upon the confidence of our businesses to grow, invest and create jobs. That's why the British Chambers of Commerce has been working hard to ensure government makes good on its promises to encourage enterprise, and do everything in its power to help businesses grow."

"All the good things we want to see in society depend on business and wealth creation. These awards provide a snapshot of some of the most impressive companies from across the country. Many of these business owners are working day in day out to build upon the companies they have built from scratch, creating jobs in local communities, and contributing to the economic recovery we so desperately need. We're delighted to be able to celebrate the success of these companies through the Chamber Awards."

Cara came up with her brilliant idea when she struggled to get her daughter Holly, now three, off to sleep in the buggy during the day. In 12 months the business grew into a global concern with a celebrity following. SnoozeShade is now distributed in 13 countries and her products are available through leading UK high street retailers including John Lewis, Tesco and Mothercare.

Having won a regional award, Cara is now in the running for the national title in her category, as well as the chance to collect the Award for Outstanding Business Achievement – with a top prize of £25,000 and runner up prizes of £15,000 and £10,000.

There are nine categories, backed by high profile sponsors including RBS and NatWest, BT Business, BT Directories, Dell, DHL Express, the British Standards Institution (BSI), AXA PPP healthcare and Westfield Health. The national winners will be announced at a ceremony at London's Grand Connaught Rooms on November 24th 2011.
