

TRURO COMPANY IN RUNNING FOR TOP BUSINESS AWARDS

An environmentally-friendly Truro marketing business will line up alongside some of the country's most successful companies as it competes for a leading national award.

MPAD, which is based in Cathedral Lane, has picked up the regional Sustainability Award, sponsored by the British Standards Institution (BSI).

The company is now a finalist in its category for the UK title in the Chamber Awards hosted by the British Chambers of Commerce, which were created to celebrate the UK's most successful businesses.

John Longworth, Director General of the British Chambers of Commerce, said: "The health of the UK's economy relies upon the confidence of our businesses to grow, invest and create jobs. That's why the British Chambers of Commerce has been working hard to ensure government makes good on its promises to encourage enterprise, and do everything in its power to help businesses grow.

"All the good things we want to see in society depend on business and wealth creation. These awards provide a snapshot of some of the most impressive companies from across the country. Many of these business owners are working day in day out to build upon the companies they have built from scratch, creating jobs in local communities, and contributing to the economic recovery we so desperately need. We're delighted to be able to celebrate the success of these companies through the Chamber Awards."

MPAD, a marketing, PR, advertising and design agency, decided in 2007 to look at the way it used energy with a view to making savings that would not only help the environment and cut costs – but also help it to win new green business.

Last year the company saved £120 in energy consumption, saved £3,500 in expenses through car sharing and clustering meetings, and crucially, it also picked up more work. MPAD is working towards ISO accreditation at the end of this year, which will make it the only Cornwall marketing firm with ISO 14001 – which it hopes will boost the firm's competitive advantage even further.

Having won a regional award, the company is now in the running for the national title in both categories, as well as the chance to collect the Award for Outstanding Business Achievement – with a top prize of £25,000 and runner up prizes of £15,000 and £10,000.

There are nine categories, backed by high profile sponsors including RBS and NatWest, BT Business, BT Directories, Dell, DHL Express, the British Standards Institution (BSI), AXA PPP healthcare and Westfield Health. The national winners will be announced at a ceremony at London's Grand Connaught Rooms on November 24th 2011.
