

GRIMSBY COMPANY IN RUNNING FOR TOP BUSINESS AWARD

An innovative Grimsby grocery wholesaler will line up alongside some of the country's most successful companies as it competes for a leading national award.

Ramsden International, which specialises in exporting British food and drink, has picked up a regional award for Finding New International Markets, sponsored by RBS and NatWest.

The business, which employs 48 people at its Adam Smith Street head office, is now a finalist in its category for the UK title in the Chamber Awards hosted by the British Chambers of Commerce, which were created to celebrate the best of British enterprise.

John Longworth, Director General of the British Chambers of Commerce, said: "The health of the UK's economy relies upon the confidence of our businesses to grow, invest and create jobs. That's why the British Chambers of Commerce has been working hard to ensure government makes good on its promises to encourage enterprise, and do everything in its power to help businesses grow.

"All the good things we want to see in society depend on business and wealth creation. These awards provide a snapshot of some of the most impressive companies from across the country. Many of these business owners are working day in day out to build upon the companies they have built from scratch, creating jobs in local communities, and contributing to the economic recovery we so desperately need. We're delighted to be able to celebrate the success of these companies through the Chamber Awards."

Ramsden plans to double sales within the next five years. Last year alone, the company generated more than £600,000 worth of additional sales through exporting British food and drink to new markets including Slovakia, Mauritius and Bolivia.

It expects to visit the Baltic States, the Caribbean and Latin America with a view to exporting there in the future, providing future growth for the business.

Having won a regional award, Ramsden, which was a national winner in last year's awards, is in the running for the national title in its category again, as well as the chance to collect the Award for Outstanding Business Achievement - with a top prize of £25,000 and runner up prizes of £15,000 and £10,000.

There are nine categories, backed by high profile sponsors including RBS and NatWest, BT Business, BT Directories, Dell, DHL Express, the British Standards Institution (BSI), AXA PPP healthcare and Westfield Health. The national winners will be announced at a ceremony at London's Grand Connaught Rooms on November 24th 2011.
